The Worthy Matron and local Scholarship Chairperson are responsible for verifying that all requirements are met. One (1) completed application with the Seal of the Chapter, recommendation from the Chapter, and all attachments must be sent to: Carol A. Cole, 17505 Devon Rd., Cleveland, Ohio 44119, no later than July 2, 2022. Only one candidate will be considered from each Chapter, due to the funds available. Applications that are late or incomplete will not be considered. It is extremely important that you check everything very carefully with particular attention being given to the essay. We understand that with pandemic related concerns, some documents may be difficult to obtain. Please contact me with any concerns. The Grand Scholarship Committee appreciates your cooperation in providing assistance to deserving students.

To: The Local Scholarship Chairperson,

Greetings

The Grand Scholarship Committee sincerely thanks you for agreeing to serve as the Local Chairperson for the Scholarship Awards Program for 2022-2023.

Enclosed you will find the required forms for the application process. You will need to insert the name of the applicant as well as the return date for the Letters of Recommendation and Request for Transcript form. Feel free to duplicate forms where necessary. The Recommendation from your Chapter should reflect the reasons for selection of the particular applicant. All information shared with us will be held in strict confidence.

Before forwarding the complete application materials to me, please check very carefully to insure that all items on the Checklist are included. Please establish your Chapter's deadline for the return of the application materials, so it will allow you time to assist the applicant with items that may be incomplete or missing. Return the completed packet of materials to me at the above address by July 2, 2022.

Fraternally,

Carol A. Cole
